

Navy Building All Types of New Ships

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP)—The United States navy, already the world's biggest, is building about 100 more ships for the fleet, ranging from a huge carrier to radiating new design destroyers and submarines.

A survey of available records today showed among other things, that 13 submarines are being built now, not counting the experimental atom-powered undersea boat recently authorized by congress. This is the largest submarine building program since the mass production days of World War II.

There are about 450 combat ships in the operating fleet now, not including several hundred amphibious, supply and auxiliary craft.

Much of the buildup of the operating fleet has come from pulling laid-up ships from the mothball fleet, although some of the expansion includes new carriers, destroyers and other major combat craft.

The mothball fleet of vessels built for World War II numbered at one time about 2200. It still is a sizeable force in reserve, about 1,600 craft, despite withdrawals for return to the active fleet, transfer to navies of other friendly powers and dispositions by sale or other means.

Included in the reserve fleet are 11 battleships and two battle-cruisers, a type built specifically for fighting a similar design of the German navy, the Schernhorst class ship. The American battleships, however, were completed for use in the war and were put into reserve almost immediately.

The navy now has all four of its 45,000-ton Iowa class battleships back in commission or being readied for operation. The 11 battleships in the reserve fleet include the thoroughly modern but small 35,000-ton class ships as well as several older battleships built during World War I and subsequently scrapped.

Most of the ships under construction is the Forrestal, a 55,000-ton carrier to cost an estimated $218,000,000. It will include such ultra modern gadgets as a retractable "island" to make the carrier a true flush-deck flat-top and a television set to enable landing officers to see planes approaching the flight deck when the island superstructure with its bridge is retracted into the deck.

Building also are two experimental type ships, one an "ocean escort" vessel of destroyer lines apparently designed for high speed, anti-submarine work under any sea

The current program also includes a tank fleet command ship.

The navy now has seven "AGC" amphibious command ships in operation. They are used as they were during World War II—as the flag ships for big-scale landing operations on an enemy beach where a complex fleet of carriers, battleships, cruisers, destroyers and landing ships and tanks work as a single team under direction of the command ship.

About half of the 13 submarines being built are intended as standard long range, fleet type operations, but they include improved or entirely new design engines and target detection systems.

Raft Crew to Be Entertained

Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 8 (AP)—The raft Lethargia and three of its crew were expected here today for a round of southern hospitality.

Several boats arranged to go up the Mississippi river to meet the small oil drum raft and escort minesweepers of various classes. The Korean war has brought extensive use of minesweepers to cope with the constant release of mines by the enemy from river mouths as well as to sweep in operations such as the Inchon landing last year.

For the first time since the war, the navy has gone back into construction of the PT boat. Three such craft are building, being essentially experimental designs. They are substantially larger and faster than the old PT boats which operated so successfully against the Japanese in the Pacific island campaigns.

Conferees Ponder Over Tax Increase

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP)—A senate-house conference committee today got down to the big points of dispute in a bill to increase taxes by $5,000,000,000 to $7,000,000,000 a year.

The remaining major controversy between the two branches involves:

1. The size of the increase in individual income taxes. In all but the highest brackets, the house bill calls for a 12-1/2 per cent boost in the tax due under present rates, the senate bill for an 11 per cent rise. The final figure probably will be somewhere in between.

2. A house proposal to make a greater portion of a company's earnings subject to the excess profits tax.

3. Whether impose corporation taxes on unallocated profits of co-operatives, presently untaxed.

Members of the 12-man conference group are pointing for a final agreement by tomorrow night, some even spoke hopefully of completing the compromise bill today.

But any one of the big unresolved issues might hold back the final settlement for several days.

The conferees capped five days of negotiations last week with a Saturday session that lasted until midnight. They cleaned up a hundred odds and ends of the bill, but readily conceded that the big issues still remained.

Excise taxes, along with a few decreases, now are out of the way. If the new law can be enacted by Oct. 21, the changes will take effect Nov. 1. The excise boosts all are slated to end April 1, 1954.

Stassen Says Jessup Against Nationalists

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP)—Harold E. Stassen contended today the record makes it plain the state department played a part in undermining the Chinese Nationalists, and contradicted denials by Secretary Acheson and Ambassador Philip C. Jessup.

Testifying before a senate foreign relations subcommittee, Stassen said:

"The denials by the state department of things which I know are true, the claims by the state department of things I know are not true, leave me very uneasy and disturbed with regard to our country's future policy."

The senate group is considering Jessup's nomination to be a delegate to the coming United Nations general assembly meeting in Paris. He is now an ambassador-at-large, a post in which he represents this country on many special occasions.

Stassen, former Republican governor of Minnesota and now president of the University of Pennsylvania, testified last week on the Jessup nomination.

He said then that the late Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich.) told him that Acheson and Jessup plotted at a secret White House meeting in 1949 for a cut-off of aid to Nationalist China.

As a follow-up to this testimony excerpts from Vandenberg's diary were made public in New York last night.

At one point in the diary, Vandenberg wrote that President Truman reported at a 1949 White House meeting that he had a recommendation from the national security council that U. S. aid to Nationalist China be stopped.

The diary, however, did not mention Jessup as being present

Bus Skids Into Tree, Five Die

Gainesville, Va., Oct. 8 (AP)—A skid on a slippery highway sent a packed Trailways bus crashing into a tree near this northern Virginia town last night. Five persons were killed and 21 injured.

State police listed three of the dead as Robert Binton Good of Rileysville, Va.; Mrs. Gertrude Rogers of Alexandria, Va.; and Lena Lunsford of Washington. The other two still were unidentified to day.

The injured, at first taken to the nearby Gainesville Methodist church, later were removed to hospitals in Warrenton, Arlington and Washington. None of them appeared to be critically hurt.

Officers said the vehicle veered off a curve on state route 55 about 3 p. m. Witnesses said the bus and did not say what Acheson's view was. He was a member of security council at the time.

It said the President's military advisors also were behind the stop-aid proposal. The state department has said Jessup was not at the meeting, and that the proposal was turned down on the advice of congressional leaders.

Stassen's previous testimony was given before the senate internal security subcommittee, headed by Senator McCarran (D-Nev.).

McCarran said today the diary showed "without question" that Stassen was right in his earlier testimony. McCarran came out firmly against senate confirmation of Jessup.

But Senator Lehman (D-Lib, N.Y.) told a reporter the nomination would be approved. He said it was an excellent appointment.

The controversy surrounding Jessup centers on U. S. policy in the Far East and who advocated what during the critical years 1949-50 when the Chinese Communists consolidated their hold on China.

struck the tree with such force that the front of the vehicle nearly touched the back.

Reports on the number of passengers varied between 40 and 60. Mrs. Elta Washington of nearby Waterford said she was the last person to board the front Royal-Washington bus and had to stand up.

State police identified the driver as Alvin Shepherd of Washington. He was not hurt seriously.

Here's why Fordomatic puts them all in the past!

For the past year, automotive writers, engineers and owners have been raving about a new kind of automatic driving... and here's why you get it only in Ford Cars:

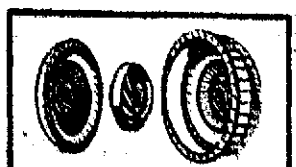

All the power you need when you need it is yours with Fordomatic. You'll find it the most thrilling experience you ever had. You'll discover the advantages of having... the smooth going that automatic drives employing torque converters can give you... plus the zip, control, and savings that cars with automatic gears can give you. For Fordomatic combines the best features of all other automatic drives!

Some automatics have this

The automatic drive some cars offer you is a torque converter which multiplies torque with the use of gears. In advantage it's a smooth flow of power. In disadvantage it's a smaller range of torque multiplication which requires more power from the engine, and an increased axle ratio which increases costs.

Some automatics have this

Other cars offer an automatic drive that uses planetary gears (as illustrated in simplified form at right) instead of a torque converter. The advantage here is more "zip" under load and smoother shifting. The disadvantage is that planetary gears are not as smooth as a torque converter.

IT GIVES YOU INSTANT "GO!"

Because Fordomatic gives you a combination of the best features of all other automatic drives, it delivers instant "go" for exceptionally easy, exceptionally smooth starting, passing, and hill climbing. Its extra Intermediate Gear gives you a push of extra power any time you want it... extra braking power, too, that's outstandingly smooth.

IT PRACTICALLY DRIVES ITSELF!

Fordomatic drives your car for you better than you could ever drive it yourself. It brings you a completely new built-in no-shift-lever, no-clutch-pedal driving, because its development began where all other automatic drives left off.

But Fordomatic has both

Yes, Fordomatic has a torque converter plus automatic gears. It brings you only the advantages of both drives and eliminates the disadvantages.

Unlike cars with only a torque converter (which start and cruise all in one drive gear), Fordomatic starts fast and smooth in Intermediate Gear then shifts itself into Drive Gear.

Rose Bowl Seems to Be All Settled

New York, Oct. 7 (AP) — It's early to be talking about potential bowl games, but the Pacific coast conference already is whetting it up for Southern California for a Rose Bowl spot.

Not that Southern Calif. will win the league title. But California, the top team in the West — and very possibly the nation — is not eligible for another crack at the Jan. 1 game.

Southern California went to the top of the conference Saturday by upsetting Washington, which was supposed to be California's only threat to the title. The score was 20-13, and it would indicate that the Trojans are the ones who will cause the trouble, if any, for Pappy Waldorf's California Bears.

California, of course, whipped Minnesota of the Big Ten, 55-14.
 That immediately brought up the question of which is stronger, California or Michigan State, which beat Ohio State, 24-20.

There should be no trouble this week because all the top teams in the first Associated Press poll — Michigan State, California and Tennessee — face easy assignments.
 The Spartans play Marquette, the Bears Washington State and the Vols, who shut out Duke, 29-0, go against Chattanooga.

But Notre Dame, No. 5 this week and rolling along almost like the Irish of old, after polishing off Detroit, 40-6, Friday night, run smack into Southern Methodist, which whipped Missouri, 34-0. This one ought to give a line on just how far Notre Dame is going to go this year.

It comes as though the class of the country is going to be in the Southwest conference, where traditionally the races are settled when snow is falling and other schools are preparing for their post-acca-tion games.

The Texas Aggies perhaps showed the most class in overcoming Oklahoma, last year's mythi-cal national champion, 14-7. But Texas, sixth-ranked team in the country, turned back North Carolina, 45-20, and Texas Christian recorded a 17-7 triumph over Arkansas. Any of those three might win it if Southern Methodist falters.

In the has-been department at this early stage of the season, you find such Michigan, Kentucky, Alabama and Georgia. Kentucky, respectively, has been a big disappointment and lost its third straight Saturday, Georgia Tech doing the honors this time, 13-7.

Michigan, defending Big Ten champion, lost the first game in history to Stanford, 23-13. Mississippi State nipped Georgia, 6-0, and Vanderbilt nosed out Alabama, 22-20.

Army is not as weak as it was cracked up to be after the erib-ling scandal. Northwestern beat the Cadets, 20-14, after Earl Hall's men held a 1-7 third period lead.

In other major games, Princeton beat Navy, 24-20; Colorado, outscored Kansas, 35-27; Purdue defeated Iowa, 34-30; Indiana stomped Pitt, 13-6; U. C. L. A. whipped Santa Clara, 44-17; Penn triumphed over Dartmouth, 39-14; Columbia blanked Harvard, 35-0; Holy Cross manhandled Fordham, 54-20; Baylor was victor over Tu-lene, 27-14; Marquette tied Iowa State, 6-6; Maryland squashed George Washington, 33-0, and Brown upset Yale, 14-13.

The state motto of Alabama is "Here We Rest."

Dressen to Manage the Bums in 1952

New York, Oct. 8 (AP) — Charlie Dressen whose Brooklyn club blew a 13-1-2 game in seven weeks to lose the National league pennant to the New York Giants, will manage the Dodgers in 1952, the Associated Press learned today.

A Los Angeles official revealed today Brooklyn held an organizational meeting last Saturday in which all the Dodger brass, except President Walter O'Malley, attended.

The official, who asked not to be identified, said the announcement of the rehiring of Dressen for next year will be made "four or five days after the end of the World Series."

"I can tell you this much," he said. "Dressen definitely will return as manager next year. I don't want an announcement to come from me because it rightfully should be made by the boss." (O'Malley).

The official said the meeting was held for the purpose of discussing 1952 club plans.

"None of us in the organization blames Dressen for the team's collapse," he said. "We think Chuck did a fine job in his first year at the helm. We feel we know why we lost the pennant, but we don't think Dressen was to blame."

Criticism from all directions was hurled at Dressen following the Dodgers' heart-rending defeat in the rubber of the three-game pennant playoff last Wednesday.

O'Malley was swamped with letters and wires demanding the little skipper's removal.

Dressen succeeded Burt Shotton as manager at the end of last season after he had managed the Oakland club to a Pacific Coast league championship. After a successful start, Chuck steered the Dodgers to the top and kept them there until passed by the Giants in the playoffs.

"Throw them over the rocks behind you—down the hill," Slate-meyer ordered.

As he turned to do so he stepped quickly in behind her. When she threw the weapons he struck her across the head with the barrel of the rifle. She dropped soundlessly. "She'll keep," he said, not glancing down to see if she would or not.

Facing me, he added, "Back up, in between those rocks. Those two high ones that wedge together."

I stepped back until my shoulders touched the boulders. They were 12 feet high with smooth vertical sides. A puma couldn't have gotten out of that spot. The only way was through the figure frenting the opening.

Unbuckling his own guns, Slate-meyer threw them contemptuously up onto the hillside behind him, following suit with his rifle.

"They're yours," he grunted. "All you have to do is to get them." As he spoke he drew his knife, starting in toward me. "No noise," he explained, tensely, making a slight twisting gesture with the blade.

I SUPPOSE no man is totally without some shred of the actor in him, some raveling of humor in the cloth of his makeup. Deep inside Slatemeyer lurked a maverick strain of mirth. His weakening to it in this moment was one of those weird split-hair things: the sort of featherweight foolishness that has cost many a man many a battle.

Pausing five feet from me, his eyes never leaving mine, he made his memorable sally into sarcasm.

Between the pause and the speech I gathered myself to counter his attack.

Browns Take Rams in Grid Comeback

Los Angeles, Oct. 8 (AP)—The folks who have been sounding taps over the Cleveland Browns, including Browns' Coach Paul Brown, can take it all back today.

The National league pro champions looked just about as good as ever Sunday as they thoroughly trounced the slightly-favored Los Angeles Rams, 38-24, before 67,136 sweltering fans in Memorial Coliseum.

The temperature on the field was announced as 111 degrees as the game started, but the Browns did everything but wilt. It took them the first half to start to roll, but when they did the Rams simply couldn't stop them.

Brown came west singing the blues. His team was riddled by injuries, wasn't capable of giving the Rams much of a battle even at top strength.

Meanwhile, the New York Giants, who figure to battle it out with the Browns for American conference honors, whipped the Washington Redskins, 35 to 14, on an effective pass defense and Charley Conerly's strong right arm.

Other games saw the Chicago Cardinals and Green Bay Packers come through with upsets. The Cards trounced their cross-town Chicago rivals, the Bears, 28 to 11. Green Bay blew a 20-point lead but rallied to nip Pittsburgh's Steelers, 15 to 10.

In a night game Saturday, the Philadelphia Eagles registered their second straight victory by defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 21 to 14.

The Rams head east for another tough one next Sunday, meeting Detroit's Lions, who may be stronger than Cleveland. The Browns get what should be an easier game, entertaining Washington's Red skins.

When this kind of talk gets started, particularly in Washington, it's hard to stop it. There's a tendency for everyone with a little knowledge and a big mouth to add his two cents until a secret is no longer a secret.

One thing seems sure: We'll hear more about the so-called fantastic weapons, so much more, because at the moment they're still mysterious, that the atom bomb will cease being the center of attraction.

And the people of this country — conditioned since Hiroshima in 1945 into thinking of an atomic weapon as a bomb dropped on a city — will have to adjust themselves to the idea of atomic weapons used on a battlefield.

President Truman started the ball rolling with a speech he made to a Democratic party rally early in September when he said "fantastic new weapons" were being developed.

Until then, from time to time, there had been talk of developments, most of it coming from members of congress — in new kinds of atomic weapons, such as atomic artillery shells and guided missiles.

But the word "fantastic," which made everyone sit up straight, had been missing till the President supplied it, although last April Rep.
 George (D-Penn.) used the word "envincible."

The congressman at the time said the U.S. had perfected "cataclysmic" new atomic weapons and indicated they could spread deadly radioactivity. He urged the President to order them used in Korea.

In August came the word "amazing," Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.)

"We have reached the state where we can begin to meet the tactical needs of the armed services (troops in the field) while still retaining our immense capacity for strategic retaliation (long-range bombing)."

But all this vague talk about "fantastic" and "cataclysmic" and "amazing" new weapons must not have been sitting well with another member of congress, a Texas Democrat, Rep. Mahon. He said:

"I think one sentence would be appropriate at the moment: Those fantastic statements about fantastic weapons are entirely too fantastic. No right thinking person is going to be misled by all this superman talk of push-button warfare.
 There is no easy and inexpensive road to victory in war."

Russell Afraid of Notre Dame

Dallas, Oct. 8 (AP)—H. N. Russell, coach of southern Methodist, says Notre Dame's team of this year is as good as the 1949 eleven that won the national championship.

For that reason, he declared today, Notre Dame should be a four-touchdown favorite over SMU in their game at South Bend, Ind., Saturday.

"My scouts report that Notre Dame has the same type team as 1949 when we were four-touchdown underdogs before we played them," said Russell. "That should be about the same margin this time." Notre Dame beat SMU 27-20.

Russell said the fans should not be deceived by the SMU showing last week in crushing Missouri 34-0. "That's the weakest Missouri team in some time," Russell said.
 "I don't know whether I have a good team or not."

Leahy, here to scout the game, said SMU had a fine team — good blocking, good defensively, strong running. "I was surprised at the running game showed by SMU," he said. "I didn't know they had anything like that."

Leahy remarked that his season had already run its course. "We won't be scoring many points from here on out," he said.

Believes Texas Will Take Sooners

College Station, Tex., Oct. 8 (AP)— Oklahoma won't go far outside its own conference this football season, says Ray George coach of the Texas Aggies. He thinks the Sooners will absorb their second defeat in two weeks Saturday at Dallas when they play Texas.

George, who said last week that he didn't have the manpower to beat Oklahoma then beat Oklahoma 14-7, declares the Oklahoma line isn't fast and active enough to push the team along at the pace it maintained the past two years.
 Last fall Oklahoma was national champion.

"Oklahoma has a great back in Billy Vessels and a fine tackle in Jim Weatherall, but in the overall the team is not outstanding," he observed as he indirectly wrote the finish for the Sooners as a national power this season anyway.

George explained his forecast that A. and M. would lose to Oklahoma by the fact that Okla-home played a very weak team, the week before and that his scouts couldn't get an accurate estimate of the teams potentialities.
 The Sooners swamped William and Mary 49-7, playing under wraps.

George doesn't think Oklahoma could win in the Southwest conference this year. "They may take their own conference title, he said, "but they'd have a mighty tough time in this one."

 Greece, according to the Encyclopedia Americana.

CIO Wants Over All Production Plan

Washington, Oct. 8 (AP) — The CIO committee on economic policy asserted in a letter to President Truman that the defense production program is falling dangerously behind because of lack of planning, mistakes, and mismanagement.

Big Mystery Shrouds Death of Soldier

Forrest City, Oct. 8 (AP) — What caused the death of army Sgt. 1ST Class Aubrey P. Reeves? Was he hit by a rock or some other object? Was he beaten in a fight? Did he strike his head in a fall, or did he suffer a fatal recurrence of a previous injury? A coroner's inquest was to be held here today in an attempt to answer these questions.

Reeves, who lived near the Monroe-Phillips county line, died at a Helena, Ark., hospital, Saturday, several hours after he and his brother, Sgt. Mack Reeves, also of the U. S. army, were found unconscious in a ditch here.

At Helena, Sheriff E. P. Hickey of Phillips county placed together this account of the incident. Aubrey, home on leave from the Army and Navy hospital at Hot Springs where he was recovering from injuries suffered in an auto accident, joined his brother Mack, Mrs. Joan Reeves and another woman—he didn't identify her—in a Friday night trip to Forrest City. The men were drinking. En route, home, Aubrey accused the woman of making fun of him. The car was stopped and the couples got out.

The girls ran away from the auto and hid in a ditch for several minutes. They returned to the car and not finding their companions drove the automobile to Poplar Grove about 25 miles from the scene. They returned the next morning and discovered the brothers in a ditch. Both were unconscious. Mack recovered but Aubrey was hospitalized. At Helena, he died several hours later.

Dr. J. M. Nichols, Phillips county coroner, said death was due to a damaged brain, he also reported that the sergeant had been hit or kicked in the back. Sgt. Mack Reeves was home on leave from an army hospital at Battle Creek, Mich. He suffered the loss of part of his right foot in Korea.

Paratrooper Jumps to His Death

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 8 (AP) — A young paratrooper plummeted 115 feet to death here when he jumped off a Mississippi river bridge because of a "dare" from his two companions.

Inspector U. T. Bartholomew identified him as Pfc. Norman Seidenzahl of Baltimore, Md., stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., with two companions.

Seidenzahl, Pfc. George Anderson, 21, of Wilmington, Del., and Pfc. John Soroka, 23, of Masury, O., arrived here yesterday on a three-day pass after a stopoff in Nashville, Tenn.

The trio thumbed a ride to the bridge and stood at the railing, about one third of the way across, making jocular wagers about jumping off. Then Seidenzahl started his jump.

Anderson, tears streaming down his face said, "We both grabbed him but he tore loose and hit the water on his side. We never saw him again."

YOUR UP-TO-THE-MINUTE NEWS...

Natural gas may not get a by-line in your newspapers and news magazines... but, day after day, it plays an important part in getting the news into print. Gas is used in the curing of paper... in the casting of type... in the making of cuts... and for drying the ink as the printed pages surge from the press. These and many more uses of natural gas in the field of printing and publishing are just a few examples of the thousands of ways in which natural gas is an essential provider for our daily welfare, education and comfort.

...DEPENDS ON A MODERN INDUSTRY IN YOUR COUNTY

Without the regular flow of natural gas through Texas Eastern's pipe lines... many a "hot" news story would grow "cold" before it could appear in print. To keep an abundant supply of natural gas flowing steadily, skilled crews work round-the-clock in your county. And, though the whole nation is enriched by the successful achievement of Texas Eastern's task, your own county is benefited particularly... through the Company's regular payment of taxes, through added payrolls, and through purchases made locally.
